

Bayfield County 4-H Family Newsletter

Dear 4-H Families,

The thaw is upon us and spring is almost here! Time once again for a couple of our favorite annual 4H events, the Dairy Breakfast and the Cultural Arts Festival. Details and registration information can be found inside.

31ST ANNUAL FARM AND GARDEN SHOW AND DAIRY BREAKFAST April 6 at the Bay Area Civic Center

The show will begin with the Dairy Breakfast which will be served from 8:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. The breakfast is sponsored by the Bayfield and Ashland County 4-H, the Ashland FFA, the Chequamegon Dairy Association and the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board. Proceeds will support Bayfield and Ashland County 4-H and Ashland FFA activities.

The Farm and Garden Show offers community members an opportunity to interact with area business and a variety of vendors that include crafters, educational programs, farm and garden businesses, conservation programs, and health and service groups and organizations. One of the big draws to the show is the FFA Small Animal Farm where FFA and 4H members share their animals with visitors. The show is free and open to the public from 8AM-1PM. For more information, updates and vendor registration, visit us on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/bayareafarmandgardenshowANDdairybreakfast/> or contact the Ag Teacher Sandy Naas at AHS at 715-682-7089 x1107.

If you or your group would like to reserve a table at the Show, you can find a reservation form on the Facebook page or contact us at the 4H office, reservations are due March 23.

If you'd like to help out, work shifts are from 7-9 am, 8:30-11 am, and 10:30-12:30 pm. 4H Ambassadors will also be on hand greeting people and doing some demonstrations. Hope to see you there!

Tractor Supply Company is Looking for Local 4-H Clubs to Join them for the Spring Paper Clover Campaign

Published on February 15, 2019 by joanne.wolan

The Spring Tractor Supply Company Paper Clover Campaign is right around the corner, starting March 27, 2019 and running through April 7, 2019. Add $1 at checkout, and your money supports leadership activities for Wisconsin 4-Hers.

The Wisconsin 4-H Foundation is offering another way for clubs to participate: if your club partners with your local TSC to promote 4-H at the store, the Foundation will give your club $50. TSC stores with 4-H clubs' participation have better sales, and, of course, better sales means more money that can be used to help fund leadership programs throughout the state.

There are many TSC stores in Wisconsin, so even if there is not a TSC in your county, you can still partner with a TSC that is closest for you. You must register with the Wisconsin 4-H Foundation before your event because $50 is awarded to only one club per store. In exchange, your club will provide pictures of your event that will become property of the Wisconsin 4-H Foundation for use in marketing and social media (please be sure to have all the proper releases).

If you are interested, please contact Joanne at the Wisconsin 4-H Foundation at Joanne@Wis4HFoundation.org or (608) 262-1597. The Foundation can provide contact information for the store in your area, then your club and the store can work together to plan your event. Keep in mind that this opportunity is first-come, first-served (one club per store).

Spring—Ziigwaan

The days are getting longer, the snow is thawing, and the maple sap is beginning to run! Is making maple syrup a tradition in your family? Would you like to learn how the Ojibway people originally harvested and enjoyed this wonderful food from nature? Check out this third short video from the Ojibwe Four Seasons Series, brought to you by Wisconsin Public Television and Wisconsin First Nations American Indian Studies. It is called Spring—Ziigwan

<https://wisconsinfirstnations.org/ninago-qikinonwin-four-seasons-ziiqwan/>

When the snow and ice thaw, it is the beginning of a new year for the Ojibwe as they moved their camp into the forest to harvest maple sap for making sugar. The whole family participated in the work. They used birch-bark baskets to gather the sap. At nighttime they went fishing in the shallow waters and used a burning torch to see the fish in the lakes. It was a happy time of year after the long winter. Today, tribal members still gather maple sap, but they use metal or plastic containers to gather it and big iron kettles for boiling the syrup. They also still go fishing at night but they use an electric flashlight to see the fish instead of a birch-bark torch. Students will learn how times have changed, and yet tribal members continue to practice their traditional ways according to the seasons.

Did you know that there are only 3 of these shops in the country? And we have one right here in Washburn, WI? It is Western Engraving. At Western Engraving they make the dies and stamps for embossing things like year book covers. The machines they use are from the 1950's . Some things they do on machines and some engraving they do free hand . It was very interesting . Afterwards we went to Coco's Cafe for hot cocoa . Also, Seth Johnson explained how to do demonstrations.
